

Kristina Elise Thompson

Kristina received her undergraduate degree from Texas A&M University and her Juris Doctor from the University of Georgia School of Law. While in law school, Kristina served as Administrative Vice President of the UGA Moot Court Team and clerked for the United States Senate Committee on the Judiciary.

After graduating from the University of Georgia School of Law and being admitted to the Georgia Bar, Kristina served as Legislative Counsel for United States Congressman Ted Poe and the Director of the Congressional Victims' Rights Caucus in Washington D.C.

Kristina's practice focuses on state and federal civil litigation, including premises liability, general liability, and workers' compensation.

Admissions to Practice:

- Georgia State and Superior Courts

Community Service:

- Boys and Girls Club of Atlanta
- Atlanta Humane Society

Associate Atlanta Office

Practice Areas

Premises Liability
Food Adulteration
Church Liability
Construction
Worker's Compensation

Education

B.A. Texas A&M
University, Magna Cum
Laude, 2011
J.D., University of Georgia School of Law,
2015
Atlanta
(404) 917-0449
ket@rclawllp.com